

In cooperation with

Friends of the Parks

Presents . . .

William Shakespeare's

The Tempest

June 24 - August 6, 2006 – Saturdays and Sundays at 5 p.m.

GroundUp Theatre is honored to invite you to join us in our 2nd year of bringing free Shakespeare to Chicago city parks!

In this contemporary, family friendly, 90-minute adaptation, Shakespeare's marooned characters, in the guise of CEOs, department heads, middle managers and office temps, all try to get back to civilization as aging hipster Prospero works his magic to regain the family business.

Performance Dates:

*June 24 and 25 at Ravenswood Manor Park (4626 N. Manor Ave).

*July 8 and 9 at Skinner Park (1331 W. Adams)

*July 22 and 23 at Touhy Park (7348 N. Paulina)

*July 29 and 30 at Lindblom Park (6054 S. Damen)

*August 5 and 6 at Winnemac Park (5100 N. Leavitt)

There is one special performance at 11:30 a.m. on August 6th at Ravenswood Manor, in conjunction with "Manor Bash."

All performances are free of charge. Donations are welcome. Bring a picnic and a blanket to this outdoor production! We will perform Rain or Shine!
